What is GED Credentialing™?

GED Credentialing™ is a full-service program which fulfills requests for GED® transcripts and diplomas. The service includes fulfillment for new graduates and graduates who received their credential prior to 2016.

What does GED Credentialing™ mean to me?

By using GED Credentialing™, you will receive quick and easy access to duplicate transcripts and official Alabama GED® diplomas. Services will include:

Same day delivery: Secure electronic transcripts are delivered to your email as soon as you have passed the 2014 GED® test.

Forwarding: You can easily forward your electronic transcript directly to schools and employers that request it.

Choice: You can choose to receive your transcript and diploma in either a printed or electronic format.

First one's free: You will receive a free initial diploma and transcript after you pass the 2014 GED® test. There is a fee of $15 for each additional request.
